

Science Cup Points 2016 – 2017

**While some events may fall into multiple categories, points will only be given in one category. You must choose one for each event.

Eligible Events: Points	Activity
20	Host a student organization table at the Science Picnic
20	Send 25% of your student organization or at least 20 members (whichever is smaller) to the Undergraduate Council Holiday Party
20	Organize a team and compete at Golden Goggles
20	Work with Science Alumni Relations to organize an event that includes alumni
10 per event up to 5	Staff the Science Student organization table at JagBlast, an orientation event for incoming students
30	Host a community service event with your student organization, 25% of your organization membership or at least 20 members (whichever is smaller) must participate
20 per event up to 3	Participate in or organize a community engagement event that promotes STEM disciplines.
20 per event up to 3	Work with PREPs to organize an educational program related to a science major or career
10 per event up to 3	Host a social event for your student organization
10 per event up to 3	Attend a Jaguar athletic event - Send 25% of your student organization or at least 20 members (whichever is smaller)
20 per event up to 3	Organize an event that addresses an ethical or social issue that relates to science
20 per event up to 3	Plan an event that focuses on one of the RISE initiatives
20	Co-sponsor an event with another science student organization
20	Participate in a Regatta event (host a cheering section, sponsor a boat, at least 5 members volunteer)
20	Participate in a Homecoming student organization event (events posted in early spring)
20	Volunteer for science commencement (at least 5 members should volunteer)
20 One star 30 Two Star 40 Three Star	Participate in the Student Organization Leadership Development (SOLD) program. Points will be given for the highest status achieved, and not totaled.

Submit a form for each at: <http://tinyurl.com/sciencecup17>